Change in Visa Status

Tuition Protection Service

If for any reason the School is unable to offer a course before commencement, a full refund of the enrolment fee, and any pre-paid tuition fees (and boarding fees if applicable) will be made within 14 days of notification of course cancellation.

If for any reason the School is unable to continue to offer a course after commencement, a full refund of any pre-paid tuition fees (and boarding fees if applicable) for the proportion of the course not delivered will be made within 14 days of notification of course cancellation.

In these cases the student will receive advice to seek assistance from the Australian Government's Tuition Protection Service (TPS). Students will be notified within three working days and the appropriate notifications made in PRISMS.

The TPS ensures that full fee paying overseas students are able to either complete their studies in another course or with another education provider, or receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees. Students will either be placed in an alternate course within 14 days or unspent fees will be refunded if an alternative course cannot be found. The outcome of this process will be reported via PRISMS within seven working days.

TPS is designed to maintain the integrity and international reputation of the industry and registered providers. As a registered provider, Cranbrook pays an annual Tuition Protection Service Levy for each calendar year. See www.tps.gov.au for more information.

Consumer Protection

This policy and the availability of complaints and appeals processes does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws.
