

Privacy Information Collection Notice - Contractors and Volunteers

This Collection Notice explains in general terms how Cranbrook School (the “School”) collects, handles and protects the privacy of the personal information you provide when the School potentially engages your services or to facilitate your involvement with the School.

COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

In potentially providing your services or becoming involved with Cranbrook School, and during the course of any engagement or involvement with the School, you will be providing the School with personal information, including sensitive information such as your name, address, date of birth or other information. The School may also collect information in the course of conversations with you.

In order to consider your suitability as a contractor or volunteer, and to facilitate and manage your relationship with the School, you consent to the School collecting personal information about you from recruitment agencies, law enforcement and government agencies for criminal record checks and Working With Children Checks, and other individuals or businesses we contact for the purpose of reference checking as provided or agreed by you.

The School will collect this information in order to potentially engage your services, and facilitate and administer your involvement with the School.

Some of the information the School collects is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of a school also require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant education, public health and child protection legislation.

The personal information that is collected about you will be stored securely.

The School may store personal information in the ‘cloud’ which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated either in or outside Australia. This may mean that personal information may be stored or processed outside Australia.

The School will not disclose your information to a third party without your consent, other than to vendors / contractors that provide administrative, financial and information technology services to the School, or unless authorised or required by law to do so.

The School conducts ongoing monitoring and surveillance activities. This includes both continuous and intermittent monitoring of computer and other electronic and communications systems, including emails, files and internet usage and the use of both continuous and intermittent CCTV security cameras on School campuses.

If you provide the School with personal information of others, such as contact details of a family member, doctor, referee or emergency contact, you are encouraged to inform them that you are disclosing that information and why, that they can request access to and correction of that information if they wish, and refer them to the Cranbrook School Privacy Policy for further detail.

If the School does not obtain the information it requests from you, this may be considered an unacceptable risk to the School and we may not proceed with or continue our relationship with you.

ACCESSING YOUR INFORMATION

The Privacy Policy outlines how you may seek access to personal information collected about you, and request correction to that information if required. Please note there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others.

COMPLAINTS, COMMITMENT AND FURTHER INFORMATION

The Privacy Policy sets out how you may complain about a privacy related matter and how such a complaint will be dealt with.

The School and its staff respect the confidentiality of your personal information and the privacy of individuals. School policies reiterate the need for confidentiality and care in the management of personal information and sanctions exist for breach of these policies. The School has in place procedures to protect personal information it holds from misuse, interference, loss, and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
