

Position Vacant

PRE-SCHOOL OUTDOOR EDUCATOR PART-TIME

Cranbrook School is seeking an experienced and energetic Pre-school Educator to join our dynamic Pre-school team.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The position will work at our Pre-school at St Mark's at Darling Point on a part-time (0.4 FTE) basis on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

The Pre-School Outdoor Educator is responsible for developing and delivering the highest quality Fundamental Movement Program, collaboratively planning with the teaching team and also helping broadly with team building, communication, resources, wellbeing and curriculum and parent engagement.

Cranbrook School staff enjoy a stimulating work environment as part of a team of talented professionals, excellent opportunities for professional development, and attractive remuneration and benefits.

ABOUT YOU

You are a progressive, globally minded, enthusiastic and dedicated educator, with the ability to inspire students in their love of learning and in the pursuit of excellence.

Capable of working collaboratively within a team to plan and deliver high quality teaching and learning programs, and possessing an exemplary understanding of best practice, you sustain a deep commitment to implement rigorous, highly differentiated programmes in a pre-school setting.

You are an excellent communicator, creative, and able to work well with students, parents and other teachers. You are committed to continual professional development and reflection, and have a genuine interest in the growth of young people.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Certificate III or Diploma in Children's Services or equivalent
- Demonstrated understanding of best practice in early years education
- Experience in digital documentation and journals
- Excellent listening, written and verbal communication skills
- Familiarity with the Education and Care Services National Law, the Education and Care Services National Regulations, National Quality Framework, and the Early Years Learning Framework
- Current First Aid, CPR, Asthma and Anaphylaxis qualifications
- A firm commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

Experience with the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme would be advantageous.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications should include a resume and a cover letter addressing the selection criteria and reasons for your interest in the position. Applications should be submitted via email to recruitment@cranbrook.nsw.edu.au. Details of at least three referees will be requested from the successful applicant.
