

Position Vacant

HEAD OF DEPARTMENT – VISUAL ARTS PERMANENT FULL-TIME, TERM 1, 2024 START

Cranbrook School is seeking an outstanding Visual Arts Teacher to lead our dynamic Visual Arts Department, commencing Term 1, 2024.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The Head of Department provides leadership and support to staff and students, is responsible for curriculum development and implementation and manages the Department's budget. The role will be offered as a permanent appointment to our teaching staff accompanied by a three-year contract as the Head of Department – Visual Arts.

Teachers at Cranbrook take an active and enthusiastic part in the full life of the School, including involvement in the School's co-curricular program requiring work outside normal teaching hours. Cranbrook School teachers enjoy a stimulating work environment as part of a team of talented professionals, excellent opportunities for professional development, and attractive remuneration and benefits.

ABOUT YOU

You are a progressive, globally minded, enthusiastic and dedicated educator, with the ability to inspire students in their love of learning and in the pursuit of excellence. A highly skilled teaching professional, you have demonstrated experience leading and motivating a team.

Capable of working collaboratively with a team to plan and deliver high quality teaching and learning programmes, and possessing an exemplary understanding of best practice, you sustain a deep commitment to implement rigorous, highly differentiated programmes in a senior school setting.

You are an excellent communicator, creative, and able to work well with students, parents and other teachers. You are committed to continual professional development and reflection, and have a genuine interest in the growth of young people.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Tertiary qualifications with the ability to teach Visual Arts to secondary school students. Experience teaching within an IB framework would be advantageous.
- NESA accreditation to teach in New South Wales
- Sound knowledge and understanding of the NSW Curriculum and current teaching and learning theory and practice
- Highly organised, detail-focused, resourceful and with the ability to work under pressure in order to meet deadlines
- Able to communicate and collaborate with people at all levels, with diverse backgrounds and a wide range of age groups
- Demonstrated expertise in using data effectively to inform teaching practice
- Able to take ownership of tasks, demonstrate initiative and produce work of a consistently high standard
- Capacity to create a motivating and engaging learning environment that caters to the diverse needs of all learners through varied teaching strategies and pedagogical practices to maximise learning
- A level of mobility that supports the ability to respond to a first aid / behavioural incident
- Current First Aid and CPR qualifications
- A firm commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children
- A demonstrated understanding of child safety and appropriate behaviours when engaging with children.

CLOSING DATE: Monday 25 September 2023
