

Position Vacant

JUNIOR SCHOOL TEACHER – ART & EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PERMANENT, FULL-TIME POSITION

Cranbrook School is seeking an outstanding teacher to join our dynamic Junior School teaching team based at our Junior School campus in Rose Bay.

ABOUT THE POSITION

This is a permanent full-time position. As the Art Teacher you will be responsible for teaching art to Junior School students and as an Educational Development Teacher you will develop differentiated teaching and learning programs for diverse learners.

Teachers at Cranbrook take an active and enthusiastic part in the full life of the School, including involvement in the School's co-curricular program requiring work outside normal teaching hours. Cranbrook School teachers enjoy a stimulating work environment as part of a team of talented professionals, excellent opportunities for professional development, and attractive remuneration and benefits.

ABOUT YOU

You are a progressive, globally minded, enthusiastic and dedicated educator, with the ability to inspire students in their love of learning and in the pursuit of excellence.

Capable of working collaboratively within a team to plan and deliver high quality teaching and learning programmes, and possessing an exemplary understanding of best practice, you sustain a deep commitment to implement rigorous, highly differentiated programmes in a junior school setting.

You are an excellent communicator, creative, and able to work well with students, parents and other teachers. You are committed to continual professional development and reflection, and have a genuine interest in the growth of young people.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Tertiary qualifications in primary education
- NESA accreditation to teach in New South Wales
- A minimum of five years' teaching experience in a primary school context
- A proven passion for the arts demonstrated through teaching experience in a primary school context
- Demonstrated experience in a primary school context of constructing differentiated teaching and learning programs for diverse learners
- Experience teaching the IB Primary Years Programme, and in effective integration of ICT to deliver meaningful pedagogy
- Sound knowledge and understanding of the NSW Curriculum and current teaching and learning theory and practice
- Highly organised, detail-focused, resourceful and with the ability to work under pressure, in order to meet deadlines
- Able to communicate and collaborate with people at all levels, with diverse backgrounds and a wide range of age groups
- Demonstrated expertise in using evidence-based practices to effectively inform teaching practice
- A level of mobility that supports the ability to respond to a first aid / behavioural incident
- Strong physical, mental and emotional health to deal with the required demands and responsibilities of the role
- Current First Aid and CPR qualifications
- A firm commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children
- A demonstrated understanding of child safety and appropriate behaviours when engaging with children.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications should include a resume and a cover letter addressing the selection criteria and reasons for your interest in the position. Applications should be submitted via email to recruitment@cranbrook.nsw.edu.au. Details of at least three referees will be requested from the successful applicant.

Please apply to Cranbrook School directly as no agency candidates will be considered for this position

CLOSING DATE: Friday 11 July 2025

ABOUT CRANBROOK SCHOOL

Cranbrook is an Anglican, independent day and boarding school, Pre-school to Year 12.

Our vision is to be a world class school which encourages and enables all of our students to explore, enjoy and fulfil their potential. We lead our students to discover and make the most of their talents, to thrive in, and love the pursuit of, excellence. As a school we energise the educational environment by offering a rich and distinctive schooling both within and beyond the curriculum and give powerful pastoral support. Cranbrook builds resilience and confidence so that each student can face the challenges of the twenty-first century with personal confidence, intellectual versatility, academic hunger and optimism.

Cranbrook is an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School, and is accredited as an IB Continuum School, offering the PYP, MYP and IB Diploma Programme.

Cranbrook School is a child safe organisation. We actively promote the safety and wellbeing of all students and are committed to protecting our students from abuse and harm.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK AND WORKING RIGHTS

The successful applicant for this position will be required to hold a current NSW Working with Children Check clearance. Applicants must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident.