

Position Vacant

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC TUTOR - PIANO CASUAL

Cranbrook School is seeking a passionate, highly skilled and suitably experienced instrumental music tutor of Piano for individual student instruction.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Instrumental music tutors are highly capable musicians who play an important role in teaching music and developing the music program across the School. Responsible for undertaking high standard essential tutoring functions to prepare students for success for music examinations and performance, the role includes, but is not limited to planning, programming, tuition delivery, assessment and reporting.

Instrumental music tutors also contribute to the School music program by assisting with performances and events, and if required, direct or support instrumental and choral co-curricular ensembles.

The position works across both the Junior School and Senior School campuses.

ABOUT YOU

Possessing formal music qualifications, you have a track record of developing high performing young musicians, the skills and confidence to manage student behaviour and a demonstrated ability to both inspire young people to find their passion in music and motivate students at differing levels of ability.

You have a willingness to work outside of regular school hours for performances and events, when required.

You are enthusiastic, passionate and prepared to contribute to all aspects of School life, including supporting the Vision and goals of the School.

You are an excellent communicator, creative, and able to work well with students, parents and other teachers. You are committed to continual professional development and reflection, and have a genuine interest in the growth of young people.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Formal music qualifications
- Highly developed instrumental skills
- Experience in teaching a wide range of students (from beginner to HSC)
- Ability to use a range of different pedagogical approaches with students
- Excellent organisational and communication skills
- Ability to work in both a self-directed manner and as part of a team
- Demonstrated ability to act with, and foster collaboration and effective teamwork
- A level of mobility that supports the ability to respond to a first aid / behavioural incident
- Strong physical, mental and emotional health to deal with the required demands and responsibilities of the role
- Current First Aid and CPR qualifications
- A firm commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children
- A demonstrated understanding of child safety and appropriate behaviours when engaging with children.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications should include a resume and a cover letter addressing the selection criteria and reasons for your interest in the position. Applications should be submitted via email to recruitment@cranbrook.nsw.edu.au. Details of at least three referees will be requested from the successful applicant.

CLOSING DATE: Friday 8 August 2025
